Continuing Lay Training (CLT) is an entity of Sunday School & Discipleship Ministries International designed to train you, the lay person, for ministry in your local church.

Continuing Lay Training is a superb way to receive training in as an adult worker, children's worker, youth worker, Sunday School Superintendent and more – including Prime Time Ministries worker. It is also an excellent way for you to grow in your walk with Christ!

CLT offers individual or group learning. CLT also offers learning incentives, such as teacher certification and awards. There are three methods for you to receive training— Class Study, Mail-Order Home Study, and Online Home Study. (The Online Home Study is not yet available for all modules.)

As Christians, we are called to service and ministry. We must enhance our effectiveness by learning necessary skills and expanding our understanding. CLT is designed to enable “lifetime learning.”
