Hello, my name is Sathiya Priya and I am 11 years old. I live in India. My mother is a laborer and my father is a laborer.

At home, I like to help carry water. At church, I like to attend Sunday School. I also like playing games.

India CDC

The India Child Development Centers provide children with five nutritious meals a week, education, safe drinking water, sanitation, medical check-ups, books and stationeries, school dress, as well as social, spiritual, and cultural activities. We work for the survival of children by providing security, protection, shelter, hygiene, and health. We also give them love and affection, new experiences, praise and recognition, teaching/training, an opportunity to develop a relationship with God, and socialization.
