Dear Nazarene Leader:

It has been nearly two months since our historical 27th General Assembly in Orlando, Florida, USA. A million hours of prayer leading up to our time together made it possible for the ever-growing Nazarene family to experience the reality of God's presence both on site and on line.

This time of celebration, worship, and plenary sessions launched the Church of the Nazarene into our second century as a holiness and Great Commission church with a mission to make Christlike disciples in the nations.

As part of the Board of General Superintendents' effort to improve our communication with the denomination, and as a follow-up to our time together, click here for a link to the Quadrennial Address given on Monday, 29 June 2009. Because we see numerous changes underway in many areas of the church, our Board believes it is important to have this official presentation of the past, the present, and the vision for the future of the Church of the Nazarene available to our people around the world.

Some on the distribution list will be receiving translated versions of the Quadrennial Address from Global Nazarene Publications. The general superintendents are asking you to forward this e-mail message, including the link, to your e-mail contacts and consider posting the Quadrennial Address on websites wherever possible.

We received considerable feedback during General Assembly but would like to hear from you as well. Please write to us at bgs@nazarene.org with your comments. They are important to us.

If you have any questions, please let us know.

Thank you for your significant contributions to the Kingdom through the Church of the Nazarene.

Grace and peace,

Jesse C. Middendorf
