Dear Grove City 2001 Attendees:

Welcome each one of you as important members of the global Nazarene educational system. Thank you for committing this significant block of time to be part of a unique and creative approach to theological preparation for pastors.

There are two purposes for this gathering: (1) faculty development for quality instruction by improving personal skills; and (2) curriculum design—the opportunity for you to give back to the church a quality program of theological instruction for ministerial preparation.

Our appreciation to Dr. Ron Blake and Diane Miller of Clergy Services and to Dr. Mike and Connie Vail of the IBOE for their hard work in making this event possible. Thanks to Harvest Partners and the Luce Foundation for providing important funding and to Pastor Bobby Huffaker and the staff of the Grove City Church of the Nazarene for hosting this conference.

Sincerely,

Jerry D. Lambert
Education Commissioner
