

PRIME TIME DAY 2008 HOLINESS FOR A LIFETIME--- Called to be Saints

By Derl Keefer

Scripture Background: Rev. 7:9-17; Rom.1:7,8:27, II Cor. 1:1, Eph.1:1

We tend to visualize saints as people who are “perfect tens” in all areas of life — flawless, extraordinary, somewhere between angelic beings and ordinary garden variety people. We believe they live on a superior plane, unsoiled by pettiness, liberated from anger, temper, and rage. Our minds think they would never bend, crack, or break in any situation. If burned at the stake they never feel the heat of the fire; put in Roman Coliseums, they never feel the bite of the bear or the claws of the lion. Many believe they have unusual powers — even if they are dead. Then there is the rest of us.

Honestly, most saints would never think of themselves as saints— just ordinary Christians struggling to survive in an ungodly world. They would fit Jesus’ description in his compilation of sermons that we call the Sermon on the Mount. They include the poor in spirit (humble), the mourners, the hungry, the meek, the struggling, and the hurting. The real saints are not all about namedropping, strength, overconfidence, or all-powerful.

A friend shared this with me: “These are saints of God — not because they are great or accomplished or anything close to perfect, but because they are beloved of the Lord, and because they have lived in that love. They are saints because they have been baptized into Christ Jesus, they have known and loved him, and they have walked in his path of humble service. Being a saint is not so much a celebration of mighty acts of faith throughout history; it is a celebration of God’s love poured out on real people, yesterday, today, and always.”

Let’s look at how a saint should look and act.

A Saint Worships God

Two experienced Alpine climbers ascended the Alps with a novice climber between them. They clawed their way up the hazardous terrain for hours. Eventually reaching the summit, the lead experienced climber moved aside so that the young novice could catch the first breath-taking view. The rookie jumped to his feet on the mountaintop completely ignoring the gale force winds that were blowing across. Suddenly he was grabbed by one of the experienced guides and pulled down. With the words ringing in his ears, “On your knees, sir! You are never safe except on your knees!”

True worship occurs when a person is spiritually on his knees in praise and adoration of the eternal God.

Worship focuses on God. The human spirit stares directly on God without a blink. Worship honors God. The redeemed can do nothing but honor the One who redeems them through the blood of Jesus! Worship draws near to God. His consistent love holds us on the roller coaster ride of life.

A Saint Understands God's Almightyness

The One Supreme Ruler of the Universe is the God of the Bible. God's Almightyness includes:

1. His Mighty Presence always! In life's darkest hours the Presence of God will never leave us or forsake us. God will continually communicate with anyone who has such a desire to do the same with him. He establishes contact with his people to encourage, restore, direct, and redeem, forever giving us hope.
2. His Mighty Knowledge always! Though billions inhabit this planet God knows all by name, where they live, what's happening in their lives. What an awesome knowledge — what an awesome assurance!
3. His Mighty Wisdom always! God gives us understanding of the mind, the spirit, and the heart.

We can boast in the Lord. He is the all-wise God!

The Saint Stands In Awe Of God

The world's newest high-tech ship, the Titanic, inspired the awe of the turn-of-the-century people. Her dimensions dwarfed the other sailing vessels of the day. The interior dazzled the passengers and her centerpiece Grand Staircase crowned the architectural wonder. The polished oak of the ship's wall paneling and the gilt of the elaborate balustrades shone brightly from the sun's rays passing through the glass dome. The persona or awe of the ship gave the passengers a sense of total security.

The grandeur could not endure the impact of an iceberg off the coast of Halifax.

People seem dazzled by the world's glitter of false grandeur and pay little to no attention to the majesty of God. The sparkle of glitter the world offers does nothing but litter the ocean floor of the spirit. A saint's job is to pay close attention to the security of God's grandeur — magnitude, creation, mercy, hope, happiness, joy, peace, and life. With God as our ship we can stay afloat for eternity.

A Saint Grasps The Meaning Of Eternity

James Hewitt writes in Illustrations Unlimited about a minister preaching on heaven. He came to the end of his sermon and wanted the crowd's unanimous response to his question, "Don't you want to go to heaven?" All the people, except for a little boy in the balcony, raised their hands. So the preacher asked the little fellow, "Son, don't you want to go to heaven?” The youngster replied, “Sure, I do, someday, but I thought you were gettin’ up a load right now.”

God’s saints are ready for eternity.

They shun hell. Many people have foolishly stated that if their spouse or friend is going to hell they want to go, too. The plain truth is there are no friends in hell, just total darkness.

Paul writes to the Thessalonians in his second letter that hell is eternal destruction and exclusion from the God of love and mercy.

Hell can be described as intense physical and mental anguish; intense loneliness — separation from everyone we love; intense feeling of permanence — forever; intense hopelessness — no escape.

God offers anyone a free ticket to heaven to escape the awfulness of hell. The ticket is the forgiveness of his Son Jesus Christ.

The saint’s reward is an eternal family reunion. God has planned a fantastic family reunion that’s out of this world. But the reunion isn’t about a geographical location, it’s about people. Those whom we call brothers and sisters in this life know that there will never be a separation again. The One who has planned this outlandish happy reunion will be there — God! Jesus, who has made all this possible by dying on the cross to pay our way to the reunion, will be there, too. He will be the guest of honor at this great family reunion for all believers. The exciting news is that heaven is preparing for the great Homecoming Reunion now. Don’t get lost!

A Saint Will Be Open To God

Children love to play the game of “hide and seek” where a group of boys and girls hide and one of the children finds the others.

In his book Fresh Wind, Fresh Fire, Jim Cymbala says the devil’s strategy with the Lord’s people seems to be that they don’t call, don’t ask, or don’t depend on God to achieve great things in their lives. It is similar to the children’s game of hide and seek — except that it’s from God. But Cymbala goes on to say that when a Christian lifts his heart to God, Satan’s dominion will be damaged.

That defines being open to God. Openness to God admits our dependence on him.

Openness to God comes through prayer.

Openness to God develops through obedience. Openness to God seeks truth.

Don’t hide from God, but be wide open to his Presence and will for your life.

With that open spirit God gives the saint a deep-rooted authentic power. Like the root system of a mighty oak, God and the Christian are entwined together, producing phenomenal power to do things beyond the wildest dreams.

It is the power to resist temptation. The power to say no to the start of an office affair ... no to alcohol when everyone else is doing it ... to show love when it would be easier not to at that moment.

It is the power to be an intercessory prayer warrior on behalf of others struggling in their spiritual, physical, mental, social, economic, or emotional walk in life.

It is the power to have mercy when deeply hurt by others; power to have faith when the situation seems foggy; power to act despite the paralysis of circumstances; power to praise, honor, and glorify the King of kings and Lord of lords!

To paraphrase Paul in Romans 1:7: "To all in the world who are loved by God and called to be saints...."

Celebrate today the mighty acts of faith and the love poured out from God on ordinary people like you and me giving us God's Sainthood

PRIME TIME DAY 2008

Order of Worship – Contemporary

2008 Prime Time Day –Holiness for a Lifetime

Instrumental Prelude: “Everyday” (1999 Hillsong Publishing)

Call to Worship: Psalm 24

Worship and Praise:

“You Are Holy” (Mark Imboden Arranger, 1994 Imboden Music)

“Enough” (Chris Tomlin, 2002 worshiptogether.com songs)

Responsive Scripture Reading: “All the Fullness of God” #504 (Sing to the Lord Hymnbook, Lillenas Publishing) based on Ephesians 3:14-19

“Hungry” (Kathryn Scott, 1999, Vineyard Songs)

Prayer of the Community: Prime Time Member

Song of Response: “Eagles Wings” (Reuben Morgan, 1998, Reuben Morgan/Hillsong Publishing)

Passing of the Peace: Led by a Prime Time Adult

Drama Sketch: (i.e., Wisdom That Works, Chuck Neighbors (Readers Theatre); Changing Channels, Chuck Neighbors) Prime Time Actors or other church drama group

Testimony of Service: Prime Time Adult

Tithes and Offerings: Instrumental Offertory (Prime Time Adults)

Ministry in Music: “Fill Me Now” (Micheal Hanson, Christina Peppin, 2005 Mercy/Vineyard Publishing)

Good News: “Holiness for a Lifetime”

Closing Prayer: Prime Time Adult

Benediction: Senior Pastor

Instrumental Postlude: “Everyday” (1999 Hillsong Publishing)

(Worship and praise songs can be found through the CCLI website www.ccli.com)

(Drama Sketches can be downloaded at www.lillenasdrama.com)

PRIME TIME DAY 2008 Order of Worship – Traditional

2008 Prime Time Day –Holiness for a Lifetime

Instrumental Prelude March: Hymn #503 “Holiness Unto the Lord”

Call to Worship: Psalm 24

Worship and Praise:

Hymn #507 “Love Divine, All Loves Excelling”

Responsive Scripture Reading: “All the Fullness of God” #504 (Sing to the Lord) based on Ephesians 3:14-19

Hymn #498 “More About Jesus”

“Give Us Clean Hands” (2000 worshiptogether.com songs – All The Best Songs of Praise and Worship, Lillenas #127)

Prayer of the Community: Prime Time Member

Song of Response: “I Will Never Be The Same Again” (More Songs for Praise and Worship #34, Word Music Publication)

Passing of the Peace: Led by a Prime Time Adult

Drama Sketch: (i.e., Wisdom That Works, Chuck Neighbors (Readers Theatre); Changing Channels, Chuck Neighbors) Prime Time Actors or other church drama group

Testimony of Holiness: Prime Time Adult

Tithes and Offerings: Instrumental Offertory (Prime Time Adults)

Ministry in Music: “I Want to Be Like Jesus” Hymn #208

Good News: “Holiness for a Lifetime”

Closing Prayer: Prime Time Adult

Benediction: Senior Pastor

Instrumental Postlude: “Holiness Unto the Lord” Hymn #503

(Hymns are taken from the “Sing to the Lord” Hymnbook Lillenas Publishing)

(Worship and praise songs can be found through the CCLI website www.ccli.com)

(Drama Sketches can be downloaded at www.lillenasdrama.com)